Herald ————— 11-27-18

Paintings from the French, American, Spanish and other schools of modern art, forming part of the collection of the late Emanuel Blumenstiel and others, found ready buyers at the sale in the Anderson Galleries, Park avenue and Fifty-ninth street, last night. J. Hartog paid $900, the top price of the night, for Ridgway Knight's "A Question by the Lake," representing the American school. Messrs. Clapp & Graham, dealers, paid $510 for J. G. Brown's "Making Her Jealous." E. C. Converse bid $325 for Fritz Thaulow's "On the Trentino," a painting of the Norwegian school.

E. E. Johnson bought for $260 Hamel's "Home to the Fold," a picture of the Dutch school. G. Wells paid $210 for J. J. Henner's "Joan of Arc," of the French school. A. Levy paid $200 for J. L. Gérôme's "The Caravan," and E. E. Johnson paid $220 for Jean Georges Vibert's "A Prince of the Church. The total of the sale was $7,148.

NOTE

THE first thirty-eight lots in this catalogue are the property of Edythe H. Blumenstiel, and as can be surmised from the inscriptions on many of the paintings were collected by the well-known art lover, the late Emanuel Blumenstiel. Not content with being a lover of paintings, Mr. Blumenstiel spent much of his time when abroad in the company of artists, with happy results both in gifts and purchases. Particularly interesting are the long series of sketches of animals by Rosa Bonheur which will be of great interest to art students and museums.

The remaining pictures in this catalogue are the property of several private collectors who for various reasons are reducing their collections.

CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. All bids to be PER LOT as numbered in the Catalogue.

2. The highest bidder to be the buyer; in all cases of disputed bids the lot shall be resold, but the Auctioneer will use his judgment as to the good faith of all claims and his decision shall be final. He also reserves the right to reject any fractional or nominal bid which in his judgment may delay or injuriously affect the sale.

3. Buyers to give their names and addresses and to make such cash payments on account as may be required, in default of which the lots purchased to be immediately resold.

4. Purchases to be taken away at the buyer's expense and risk immediately after the conclusion of the sale, in default of which The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, will not be responsible if the lot or lots be lost, stolen, damaged, or destroyed, and they will be at the sole risk of the purchaser, and subject to storage charges.

5. No lot will be delivered during the sale.

6. All lots will be on public exhibition before the date of sale, for examination by intending purchasers, and The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, will not be responsible except as hereafter noted, for the correctness of the description, authenticity, genuineness, or for any defect or fault in or concerning any lot, and makes no warranty whatever, but will sell each lot exactly as it is, WITHOUT RECOURSE. But upon receiving before the date of sale, expert opinion in writing that any lot is not as represented, The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, will use every effort to furnish proof to the contrary, and in default of such proof the lot will be sold subject to the declaration of the aforesaid expert, he being liable to the owner or owners thereof for damage or injury occasioned by such declaration.

7. All books are sold as catalogued, and are assumed to be in good SECOND-HAND condition. If material defects are found, not mentioned in the catalogue, the lot may be returned. Notice of such defects must be given and the goods returned within ten days from the date of the sale. Periodicals, and all miscellaneous books arranged in parcels, are sold not subject to return.

8. Autograph Letters, Documents, Manuscripts and Bindings are sold as they are, without recourse. The utmost care is taken to authenticate and correctly describe items of this character, but this Company will not be responsible for errors, omissions, or defects of any kind.

9. TERMS CASH. If accounts are not paid at the conclusion of each sale, or, in the case of absent buyers, when bills are rendered, this Company reserves the right to recatalogue the goods for immediate sale without notice to the defaulting buyer, and all costs of such resale will be charged to the defaulter. This condition is without prejudice to the rights of the Company to enforce the sale contract and collect the amount due without such resale at its own option.

10. BIDS. We make no charge for executing orders and use all bids competitively, buying at the lowest price permitted by other bids.

11. The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, will afford every facility for the employment of carriers and packers by the purchasers, but will not be responsible for any damage arising from the acts of such carriers and packers.

Priced Copy of this Catalogue may be secured for fifty cents for each session of the sale.

CATALOGUES ON REQUEST

SALES CONDUCTED BY MR. FREDERICK A. CHAPMAN

HAMEL
DUTCH SCHOOL

260.-

1. HOME TO THE FOLD

Many good painters exist among the modern Dutch landscapists who are little known in New York. Sober gray day, with crows flying to their nests and the shepherd driving the flock toward the fold. Autumn tints on underbrush. Characteristic peasant, seen from behind, his dog at his heels. Fine tones, excellent drawing. Boards, glazed. Water color. Signed to right, Hamel, 1906. Height, 21½ inches; width, 30½ inches.

FRENCH SCHOOL

226.-

2. STUDY OF CLOUDS

Boudin became famous through his pictures of French seaports, and this sketch in water color and pastel is a study in cloud forms. Very excellent sense of movement. Boards, glazed. Water color. Signed to left, E. B. Height, 7 inches; width, 10 inches. R. Graybridge

CAROLUS DURAN
FRENCH SCHOOL

3. THE TOPER

Duran is best known as a distinguished portrait painter and as a teacher of painting who has had famous American pupils, such as Sargent, Beckwith, and others. Here is the portrait of a "character," given in a brilliant, snappy technic. With one arm over a chair-back, outlined against a tavern wall on which jokes have been scrawled, this man sits with the sleepy smile of a toper. Clever, quick, sketchy work, not made for the market. Suggestive of Frans Hals. Canvas. Oil. Signed to right, Carolus Duran. Height, 34 inches; width, 21 inches.

E. BOUDIN
FRENCH SCHOOL

4. THE WHITE HORSE WASHING-PLACE

Small picture by Boudin of the spring behind the White Horse Tavern at Trouville, where the women did their washing in the primitive fashion of kneeling by the pool. Trouville now would be surprised at such a scene, for it has become an up-to-date fashionable resort. Curious as example of customs that will soon disappear from all parts of France. Canvas. Oil. Signed to left, E. Boudin. Height, 9 inches; width, 10½ inches.

LÉON Y ESCOSURA

SPANISH SCHOOL

5. GROUP OF ROYALISTS

In preparation for his large picture, "Parliamentarians and Royalists," Escosura, the well-known Spanish painter of military and historical scenes, began this as a sketch. For a sketch it is highly finished, and the quality of the steel of the helmets, leather of the boots, cloth of the jerkins, is well defined.

Panel. Oil. Signed at right, Léon y Escosura. Height, 12 inches; width, 9 inches.

T. H. KAEMMERER

FRENCH SCHOOL

6. ORANGE GIRL

Presentation piece to Emanuel Blumenstiel. A comely orange girl has set down her basket and seated herself to fasten her garter. She turns her head to see that no one is looking. Plump figure, well-painted flesh and hair. Dedication to Mr. Blumenstiel in right-hand upper corner.

E. BOUDIN

FRENCH SCHOOL

7. WAITING FOR THE FISHER FLEET

A group of peasant women about a boat on a shoal beach. One stands apart and strains her eyes to distinguish the sails in the offing. Gray sky, thick toward the horizon. Fine composition and nice tones in group, sky and strand.

Panel, cradled. Oil. Signed to right, E. Boudin. Height, 10 inches; width, 12 inches.

E. BOUDIN

FRENCH SCHOOL

8. STUDY OF CLOUDS

Another example of the care taken by Boudin that his pictures of seaports should be true to nature. Here is a fine study of clouds. Boards, glazed. Pastel. Signed to right, E. B. Height, 8½ inches; width, 4½ inches.

E. BOUDIN

FRENCH SCHOOL

9. FISHING LUGGERS IN SHORE

Two sketches in one frame, fishing craft waiting for the ebb. Drawings touched with water colors.

Paper, glazed. Drawing. Each signed to right, E. B. Height, 6½ inches; width, 8½ inches.

10. JOAN OF ARC

Small bust profile of a beautiful but determined young woman, such as the Maid of Orleans was. Splendid tones of russet in hair, dark blue in gown. An excellent example of this famous modern painter.

Canvas. Oil. Signed to left above, Henner. Height, 10 inches; width, 8 inches.

11. THE CARAVAN

Presentation piece to Mr. Blumenstiel from the veteran French painter of the Orient. Dedication in left-hand lower corner of the canvas. The caravan is strung along the desert, headed for an oasis. The sun is well above the horizon, but turned blood-red because of a sandstorm coming on from the west.

Canvas. Oil. Signed to left, J. L. Gérôme. Height, 8 inches; width, 12 inches.

THÉOPHILE DE BOCK

DUTCH SCHOOL

12. LANDSCAPE SKETCH

Brilliant little pastel of a hill, scattered woods and racing clouds by one of the best modern landscapists of Holland, often associated with the Barbizon painters. Charcoal and colored crayons are used with a masterly hand.

Boards, glazed. Pastel. Signed to right, Bock. Height, 11 inches; width, 17½ inches.

ROSA BONHEUR

FRENCH SCHOOL

13. A DAPPLED BLACK

Rosa Bonheur had a country place near Fontainebleau where she farmed, and kept horses and cattle. This portrait of a horse is well drawn and painted, and worthy of her brush.

Canvas. Oil. Signed above to right, Rosa Bonheur. Height, 12½ inches; width, 16½ inches.

Bought at the Rosa Bonheur sale.

J. VEYRASSAT

FRENCH SCHOOL

25. AT THE WATERING PLACE

Veyrassat was noted for his cattle. Thumbnail sketch of men taking horses to drink. Landscape in the vein of Rembrandt etchings. Clever little bit.

Boards, glazed. Pen and ink. Signed to left, J. V. Height, 2½ inches; width, 3½ inches.

M. RICO

FRENCH-SPANISH

26. VENETIAN FIGURINES

Martin Rico passed most of each summer at Venice painting chiefly in the smaller canals. These little figures of women, a man and five children on a panel; al Señor Blumenstiel with his regards. Each little wee face is characteristic.

Panel. Signed to right, M. Rico.

ÉDOUARD DETAILLE

FRENCH SCHOOL

27. DRAGOON OF THE GUARDS

A private of the Guard Dragoons, with classic helmet, high boots, sword and long musket, stands in profile. Horses and tents to rear. Fine drawing, minute work. Remarkable little print.

Boards, glazed. Etching. Signed to right, Édouard Detaille, 1886. Height, 7½ inches; width, 5½ inches.

A. CASANOVA

SPANISH SCHOOL

28. SPANISH PRIEST FIGURES

A page full of character sketches by Casanova y Estorach, dedicated affectionately to Mr. Blumenstiel. Some of the figures have explanatory notes attached; all are humorous, but kindly. Items for oil paintings of Spanish scenes, for which Casanova was celebrated. Paper, glazed. Signed, A. Casanova y Estorach, Paris, 1896. Height, 14 inches; width, 10 inches.

E. BOUDIN

FRENCH SCHOOL

29. A FRENCH VILLAGE

Open square of a village, with men and women. A village festa. Nice quality and clever handling of gouache.

Paper, glazed. Water color. Signed to right, E. B. Height, 8½ inches; width, 11 inches.

CHARLES JACQUES

FRENCH SCHOOL

30. HUT BY THE ROAD

Jacques was a masterly painter of landscape with sheep, often included among the Barbizon artists. Very careful, yet freely drawn, view of a dilapidated hut near tall trees close to the highway.

Paper, glazed. Drawings. Signed to left, Ch. Jacques. Height, 9½ inches; width, 6¼ inches.

THOMAS B. CRAIG, N.A.

AMERICAN SCHOOL

31. A QUIET RETREAT

Nice little cattle piece by a well-known American landscape painter. Three cows have come through the woods to drink from a sylvan rivulet. Good drawing of animals.

Canvas. Oil. Signed to left, Thos. B. Craig, A.N.A. Height, 10 inches; width, 14 inches.

CLAUDE MONET

FRENCH SCHOOL

32. SKY AT SUNDOWN

145.-
Monet is the painter who undertook to change the method of painting landscape. He began the new school of pictures in light tones. This is a charming little view off shore, very simple and broadly drawn.

Boards, glazed. Pastel. Signed to right, Claude Monet. Height, 5½ inches; width, 9 inches.

A. CASANOVA Y ESTORACH

SPANISH SCHOOL

33. PORTRAIT OF A CARDINAL

This little miniature is in Casanova's style, and like the models he used for his compositions. Full of character and a capital bit of color. Altogether a choice piece, though not signed.

Oil, glazed. Height, 3½ inches; width, 2½ inches.

JEAN GEORGES VIBERT

FRENCH SCHOOL

34. UNE CAUSE CÉLÈBRE

Pierrot and Columbine in the dock before the judge, while the accusing counsel is describing their misdeeds, and Harlequin, as the defending lawyer's assistant, whispers in the old man's ear. Fine variety of expressions on all the faces.

Print on board, glazed. Etching by Vibert after his own painting. Signed to left, J. G. Vibert. Height, 14½ inches; width, 24 inches.

38. THE ROGER MORRIS MANSION

An Englishwoman by birth and education, Mrs. Eliza Greatorex passed many years in America. She was noted for her flower pictures. Curious long panel with two wings, making a triptych, the wings closing over the panel. Wings and panel carved above and below, japanned in black and gold, gilded hinges and lion's head handle. Picture of old and historical dwelling, northern part of Manhattan, New York City.

Panel. Signed to right, E. Greatorex. Height, 13 inches; width, 6 inches.

E. J. DRESSLER

40. THE MIDNIGHT SUN

As well known in America as in Bavaria, this pupil of Munich masters enjoys a great reputation for his landscapes and marines. The present example is from high latitudes where at certain seasons the sun never sets. Rich tones, but effects of lonely grandeur, not disturbed by the single figure wandering along a snow-touched shore.

Panel. Oil. Signed to right, L. Munthe. Height, 22 inches; width, 14 inches.

L. MARCK
DUTCH SCHOOL

41. SHEEP IN STABLE

A farmer's boy is feeding fresh-cut grass to a flock of sheep in a stable. They feed from low-pitched mangers open on all sides. Good effect of light pouring into the dark stable. Excellent drawing and character in sheep and fowl.

Canvas. Oil. Signed to right, L. Marck. Height, 19½ inches; width, 26 inches.

CARL HOLLMAN
SWISS SCHOOL

42. NYMPH SURPRISED BY FAUN

In the style of the Swiss painter Arnold Böcklin, this fellow-countryman depicts ancient myth in a modern guise. The hook-nosed libertine is seizing the golden-haired nymph, but neither is he a satyr nor she a wild thing of the woods. A satirical picture.

Canvas, glazed. Oil. Signed at bottom, Carl Hollman. Height, 16½ inches; width, 10½ inches.

From the Hugo Reisinger Collection.

C. VAN LEEMPUTTEN
BELGIAN SCHOOL

44. MASON TOTING MORTAR

Professor Kampf has been President of the Berlin Art Society that gives annual shows with prizes and medals. Broad brushwork. The muscles of the nude torso and right arm are painted with great skill; also the suggestion of the underlying bones of arm and back.

Canvas, glazed. Signed to right, A. Kampf. Height, 35 inches; width, 25 inches.

From the Hugo Reisinger Collection.

FRITZ THAULOW
NORWEGIAN SCHOOL

45. ON THE TRENTINO

A mass of red-tiled roofs surmounting a block of houses that project upon the stream. These colors, the pink clouds in the west, the movement of the wavelets in front make this a notable example. Fritz Thaulow rarely painted any landscape or townscape without including water.

Canvas, glazed. Signed to right, Fritz Thaulow. Height, 22 inches; width, 29 inches.

GUSTAVE DORÉ

FRENCH SCHOOL

46. GAULS IN COMBAT WITH ROMANS

Inspired by Salvator Rosa, the genius of Gustave Doré was pleased to compose a battle between Roman horse and Gauls who defend an entrenchment near some crags. Bold landscape, lowering sky, sombre effect of light and shade. Splendid, rich coloring.

Canvas, glazed. Oil. Height, 21 inches; width, 29 inches.

GABRIEL MAX

AUSTRIAN SCHOOL

47. HEAD OF YOUNG GIRL

Max is celebrated in Vienna and Munich for pictures of anecdote and history. In Germany his paintings fetch high prices. Here is a comely, fair-haired Gretchen nicely modeled as to features and hair.

Canvas, glazed. Oil. Signed in right upper corner. Height, 13 inches; width, 9½ inches.

E. L. GARRIDO

SPANISH SCHOOL

48. PORTRAIT OF A LADY

Something of the quality of Alfred Stevens is found in this artist, but he adds a Spanish tang to it. Brilliant, alive treatment. The seated woman breathes and takes interest in what is going on, though completely at rest, her hands crossed on her lap.

Panel. Oil. Signed to right, E. L. Garrido. Height, 13 inches; width, 9 inches.

From the William M. Chase Collection.

JAN ASSELYN

FLEMISH SCHOOL

49. ITALIAN LANDSCAPE

On a road leading from the stone bridge that straddles a river in the background a bunch of laden mules come forward. They are led by a man in a red coat and plumed hat. Very beautiful tones. Exquisite painting of distant river and hills, with pale blue mountains behind. A morsel for a lover of old paintings.

Canvas, glazed. Oil. Signed with monogram.

From the Haggin sale.

L. BACKHUYSEN

DUTCH SCHOOL

50. FRESHENING BREEZE

In his simple, straightforward fashion, this old Dutchman paints the ships and boats as they were in his day, and cares little about anything else, such as the water and sky. The latter are painted more or less on a pattern. Good representation of a fresh gale gathering, and its effect on different sails.

Oil. Signed and dated, 1689, on sailboat to right. Height, 16 inches; width, 23½ inches.

WILLIAM M. CHASE

AMERICAN SCHOOL

51. STILL LIFE, FLOWERS

Chase always loved to paint still life and flowers. This is a rich combination of flowers of a kind not usually seen in flower pieces. They are grouped hastily in a pewter pot, and are seen against a rich green hanging. A picture of real value.

Canvas. Oil. Signed centre below, W. M. Chase. Height, 20 inches; width, 26 inches.

E. BODDINGTON, JR.

BRITISH SCHOOL

52. ON THE BANKS OF THE THAMES

View of the upper and less frequented reaches of the Thames in England, with harvesters resting among the lines of sheaves. Quiet landscape in the vein of Kenny Meadows. Boddington is one of several brothers named Williams, all of them painters. In order to distinguish themselves from the others, H. J. and Edward took the name of Boddington.

Canvas. Oil. Signed to right, E. Boddington, 1855. Height, 9½ inches; width, 18½ inches.

56. MARCHING TO MARKET IN ITALY

Over an ancient stone bridge passes the procession of contadine going to the market. A wide and imposing view of heights and plains, lake and mountains, old hill towns and Italian villas, extends beyond them, against which some of their figures show in the stately way like those of antique bas reliefs. The women carrying jars, baskets and wooden kegs on their heads are very striking. The artist must have studied these figures at Rome. Big decorative piece for a school, public building or museum. A son of the Hungarian painter, Karl Markó.

Canvas. Oil. Signed to right, And. Markó, 1891. Height, 40 inches; width, 54 inches.

J. Hartog

A Polish admirer of Schreyer has painted in a vein like him. A nomad leader of Mohammedan peasants on a beautiful white Arab leads a packtrain escorted by men with rifles. Turban, embroidered shoes, loose trousers, yagathan and pistols in the broad belt give a Byronic touch. Able drawing of men and horses.

Canvas. Signed to left, M. G. Wywiczki. Height, 29½ inches; width, 29½ inches.

58. WOODSTOCK HILLS—THE CATSKILLS

A brilliant day with a brisk wind and shadows chasing over near and distant hills. The painter has hit very happily the effect of moving clouds and swaying branches. Done with a broad, sure brush. Mr. Brown is noted for his lithographs as well as paintings.

Canvas. Oil. Signed to right, Bolton Brown. Height, 17 inches; width, 24 inches.

59. FISHING VILLAGE, MONTEREY, CAL.

A settlement on the dazzling sands of Monterey, California, where Chinamen live who take fish for the San Francisco market. Painting in a very light key, the artist gives vigor to the pale gray buildings with the green painted dories hauled up in the shadow of the shacks raised high on piling. Effects of sunlight through haze. This artist was long Art Director at the Leland Stanford University.

Canvas. Oil. Height, 18 inches; width, 28 inches.

60. WANING WINTER

One of those moist days when every bit of snow and ice has left the open brooks and pasture lands and lingers only in sheltered nooks. A delicate haze in the air. Drab clouds and drab ploughed land. Distant hills faintly blue. Broadly painted. Mr. Brown has been art instructor at Cornell and Leland Stanford University.

Canvas. Oil. Signed to right, Bolton Coit Brown. Height, 28 inches; width, 36 inches.

61. THREE BATHERS

Against the gray surface of a rock, overhung by woods, stand three nymphs of amber skin and brown gold hair, who are sporting in water, knee deep. Modernistic handling in a decorative way, with attention to the masses and outlines rather than details. Soft, sweet color notes. Good proportions in the nude figures.

Canvas. Oil. Signed to left, Bolton Brown. Height, 28 inches; width, 36 inches.

63. SOMEBODY'S PET

The late J. H. Dolph painted anecdotes, landscapes and marine, but won a name for a special gift in depicting dogs and cats. This is a good specimen of his ability to paint fur and give the lifelike, sedate and wise expression of a kitten. Dolph studied at Antwerp under Louis van Kuyck.

Canvas, glazed. Signed to left, J. H. Dolph. Height, 12 inches; width, 9½ inches.

67. CHANGING AT A STATION

Béraud is celebrated for his pictures of Parisian street life, ball scenes, views of fashionable gatherings. This is Alpine travel, with tourists buying Alpine sticks. One of his well-dressed Parisian ladies is being led along by a guide. She is perched on a sure-footed mule. Typical mountain houses, huts and peasants.

Canvas, glazed. Oil. Signed to left, Jean Béraud. Height, 18 inches; width, 15 inches.

68. WHAT HO! GOOD CHEER!

Like Vibert, this Italian painter points good-humored fun at priests and monks. The monastery cook, with a grin on his ample face, shows another monk the fine vegetables and fruit which the begging friar has received during his tour among the faithful. Note the appreciation of the other. Excellent drawing and color.

Canvas, glazed. Oil. Signed upper right, A. Tamburini, Paris, 1899. Height, 12 inches; width, 10½ inches.

74. BEGINNING THE GAME

Not yet a regular cat-fight, but these five kittens are starting in to learn how to claw and bite for keeps. Dolph had a very difficult task to give each kit a separate, yet natural, movement or attitude, but he has done it well. The overturned ink bottle and the books and pictures suggest a catastrophe.

75. A PRINCE OF THE CHURCH

Vibert found so much pleasure in the colors of the robes of prelates of the Roman Church that he became a specialist. His genre pictures in that line are in all the art museums. Observe in this picture of a cardinal the different reds for the different textures of robe, cardinal's hat and shoes. Here we have the haughty, commanding cardinal, such as Richelieu—the feudal prince doubled by the magnate of the Church. A striking, masterly work.
